THE COLONEL'S WATERLOO

Colonel John M. Fuller of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo from Liver and Kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says: "I was nearly dead of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor he did me no good; so I got a 50c. bottle of me, great Electric Bitters, which I took on I consider them the best I ever gave you earth, and thank God, I am cured. Sold the knowledge to cure Dyspepsia, and guaranteed to cure Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Kidney Disease by the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore."

STOLEN BY THE FOREMAN

The Russ lay on the burning deck Whence all but him had fled; He would have skipped had not a Jap Been sitting on his head.

"Get off," in accents said the Jap. He vainly had besought: "I would," the Jap replied, "but I Am in your whiskers caught."

Wrung by Anguish From the Lino-type Operator

Now hear me, O Lord, and let this be Ben's last attempt at poetry. Its all right for L. Hanlon and even Martinot

But please, O Lord, deliver Ben from such infernal rot.

DEVoured BY WORMS

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from inanition, their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms.

A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. Sold by all druggists.

Under our contract we give 1000 votes in the free library contest with every real estate sale, great or small. These residence lots, well located, on Exposition street, are only $10 on payments, less for cash. See Ditto & Maloney.
